Footnotes:

1. Lev 26:13b ...I have broken the bands of your yoke, and made you go upright. Isa 9:4 For thou hast broken the yoke of his burden, and the staff of his shoulder, the rod of his oppressor, as in the day of Midian. Isa 10:27 And it shall come to pass in that day, that his burden shall be taken away from off thy shoulder, and his yoke from off thy neck, and the yoke shall be destroyed because of the anointing. Isa 58:6 "Is not this the kind of fasting I have chosen: to loose the chains of injustice and untie the cords of the yoke, to set the oppressed free and break every yoke? Jer 27:11 But the nations that bring their neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon, and serve him, those will I let remain still in their own land, saith the LORD; and they shall till it, and dwell therein.

2. John 10:7 Then said Jesus unto them again, Verily, verily, I say unto you, I am the door of the sheep. John 10:9 I am the door: by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture. Mat 16:24 Then said Jesus unto his disciples, If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me. John 10:27 My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me.

5. Yesterday in the mail (January 17, 2006) I received in the mail a tube from Regent University. I knew it contained my doctoral degree. (I completed the program this past December.) I started to unwrap it but decided not to just open it in haste. It came to me to open it while having communion later when I would get up to be with Him alone. So in the wee hours of this morning (Jan. 18) I realized we had no bread and wine in the house. The closet things I found were some cashews and soy milk, so that is what I used. I opened the blinds facing the east, knelt down, and had a wonderful communion, opened the tube and took out My degree, and unrolled it. I read it and talked with Him about it and thanked Him.
